

CELEBRATING THE NEW BIRTH

Christmas was celebrated with much fanfare and pageantry by the school. The air pulsated with the spirit of revelry with a variety of programmes being organized to hail the birth of Lord Jesus. The events were coordinated by the four houses with each house organizing different events.

The Christmas carols proclaimed the essence of the season entralling the audience with their lilting music and melody. The legend of Christmas was presented through an engrossing skit. The merriments combined the spirit of the upcoming winter break brought in the much needed break from the heat of the post Midterm Examinations.
