

HCL COURSE FOR CLASS XII MATHEMATICS STUDENTS

FORM FOR FEEDBACK FROM MATHEMATICS STUDENTS OF CLASS XII(2019-20)

HCL Technologies Ltd, India's third largest IT company has announced applications open for the next batch of HCL Bee-HCL early Career Program. This program is for academically bright class XII completed students who are seeking financial independence, degree from reputed institutions and want assurance of global career. This program was launched in 2017 and till date around 1,000 candidates have joined and benefitted from this program. Candidates who have successfully completed the program are now working with HCL as IT Engineers. While working with HCL, these students are now enrolling into Higher Education programs designed exclusively for them in collaboration with BITS Pilani or SASTRA University. The fees of for these higher education programs is subsidized by HCL.

The HCL Bee-HCL's Early Career Program is available to any candidate who meets the following criteria

1. Year of Completing Class XII-2019 or 2020
2. Minimum Marks for CBSE Board: 80%
3. Have studied Mathematics in Class XII and scored a minimum of 60% in the subject
4. Student of Navy Children School, Kochi

Selection Process:- Selection for this training and hiring program is purely on merit basis. Candidates are invited to attend counseling Session, appear for an Online Test and Interview

Program Fees: This Program is offered at a fee of INR 2 Lakh + Taxes and HCL has arrangements with financial institutions that offer a bank loans for this program so that there is no immediate financial burden on the students. All candidates who successfully complete this training program are hired by HCL under various IT options such as application development, testing and infrastructure management support with a starting salary of INR 2.2 lakhs per annum

You are requested to click the feedback form and submit it today

<https://forms.gle/7CY6ZJXkxcKx6DbU6>